

Thoughtful Leader of Tomorrow? Apply for a PhD Fellowship in Switzerland

The oikos PhD Fellowship Programme intends to promote top level research in the field of sustainable management and economics e.g. in the fields of sustainability and corporate strategy, entrepreneurship, organisational change, financial markets or international trade. Therefore, we invite applications for at the University of St. Gallen, Switzerland. The Fellowships will be awarded for a three-year period starting in September 2008 and ending in August 2011. oikos Fellows will have the opportunity to build upon an excellent research platform at the University of St. Gallen, a leading European management school, and take advantage of the global oikos network.

2 PhD Fellowship Grants

Each fellowship carries a grant of annually CHF 36,000 (USD 32,000) and an additional fund of CHF 10,800 (USD 9,500) for research, travel and participation in scholarly conferences.

Selection as an oikos Fellow is based on a combination of evidence of outstanding research potential and a demonstrated commitment to and knowledge of sustainability issues. oikos Fellows commit to invest 30 percent (1.5 days) per week to supporting international oikos activities. Selected Fellows will have the opportunity to shape international key projects within oikos. We therefore look for entrepreneurial personalities with the ability to manage an ambitious PhD research project while simultaneously leading international project activities. Application deadline is March 15, 2008.

Interested? For more information please visit the programme website at

<http://www.oikos-international.org/projects/fellowship>

oikos is the international student organization for sustainable economics and management, with local chapters in 15 countries. Our mission is to integrate sustainability knowledge into the teaching and research of universities worldwide. oikos projects include international annual programmes like the oikos winter school, the oikos PhD summer academy and the oikos case writing competition. For more information consult www.oikos-international.org.