

Interested in a career in Europe? Submit your resume today to the 14th annual European Career Fair at MIT!

Looking for a job experience abroad? Thinking of studying in Europe, or pursuing your professional career on the other side of the ocean? Then this is for you: we cordially invite you to join us at the 14th European Career Fair at MIT. Discover the many opportunities that international companies, academic institutions and non-profit organizations of the “Old Continent” have to offer!

Get started!

We invite you to submit your resume today by registering online at <http://www.euro-career.com>. The deadline for resume submission is December 5, 2009.

The 14th European Career Fair in short

- January 29, 2010 - Panel discussions and workshops hosted by the European Commission.
- January 30, 2010 - Career Fair Day with exhibits and presentations by representatives from industry, academia and research.
- January 31 – February 1, 2010 - Interviews for selected candidates. ECF-affiliated seminars on career development, opportunities and other activities!

Why should I attend?

- ECF is the largest career fair of its kind in the US with more than 100 companies and over 3000 participants.
- ECF aims to represent the full breadth of the European job market. Whether you are looking for a job in industry or in the non-profit sector.
- ECF welcomes candidates from all backgrounds and all levels of experience.
- Our searchable database allows employers to view your resume, and schedule interviews with selected candidates.
- In addition, you will have the opportunity to connect with many employers on the day of the Fair!

For more information visit our website at www.euro-career.com !!!

Best of luck to you – and see you at the ECF2010!

The ECF2010 organizing team.